This Amended and Restated Employment Agreement is between Patrick Conway (“Executive”,) and United HealthCare Services, Inc. (“UnitedHealth Group”), and is effective May 6, 2025 (the “Effective Date”). This Agreement’s purposes are to set forth certain terms of Executive’s employment by UnitedHealth Group or one of its affiliates and to protect UnitedHealth Group’s knowledge, expertise, customer relationships, and confidential information. Unless the context otherwise requires, “UnitedHealth Group” includes all its affiliated entities. This Agreement supersedes and replaces Executive’s Employment Agreement with UnitedHealth Group effective February 13, 2020.

Employment and Duties

A.

Employment

. UnitedHealth Group hereby employs Executive, and Executive accepts employment, under this Agreement’s terms. Executive’s primary employment location shall be in UnitedHealth Group’s Boston, MA office.

B.

Title and Duties

. Executive will be employed as Chief Executive Officer, Optum. Executive will perform such duties, and exercise such supervision and control, as are commonly associated with Executive’s position, as well as perform such other duties as are reasonably assigned to Executive. Executive will devote substantially all of Executive’s business time and energy to Executive’s duties. Executive will maintain operations in Executive’s area of responsibility and make every reasonable effort to ensure that the employees within that area of responsibility act, in compliance with applicable law and UnitedHealth Group’s Code of Conduct, as amended from time to time. Executive is subject to all of UnitedHealth Group’s employment policies and procedures (except as specifically superseded by this Agreement).

Compensation and Benefits.

Base Salary

. Executive’s initial annual base salary will be $1,000,000, less applicable withholdings and deductions, payable according to UnitedHealth Group’s regular payroll schedule. Periodic adjustments to Executive’s base salary may be made in UnitedHealth Group’s sole discretion.

B.

Incentive Compensation

. Executive will be eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group’s incentive compensation plans in UnitedHealth Group’s discretion and in accordance with the plans’ terms and conditions. Executive’s initial target bonus potential will be 200% of annual base salary, subject to periodic adjustments in UnitedHealth Group’s discretion.

C.

Stock Plan Award Program

. Executive will be eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group’s stock plan award program at UnitedHealth Group’s sole discretion and in accordance with the program’s terms and conditions. Executive’s annual stock plan award target will be $8,000,000; however, the grant value, frequency and terms of such stock plan grants, if any, are at UnitedHealth Group’s sole discretion.

Stock Plan Award

. In accordance with guideline amounts authorized by UnitedHealth Group's Compensation and Human Resources Committee, management will recommend that Executive be awarded a grant of (i) Performance-Based Restricted Stock Units for the 2025-2027 performance period with a value of $1,000,000, subject to the performance vesting criteria and other terms of the award; (ii) Restricted Stock Units with a value of $500,000; and (iii) Non-Qualified Stock Options with a Financial Accounting Standards (FAS) value of $500,000. The Restricted Stock Units and Non-Qualified Stock Options will vest 25% on each anniversary date of the grant, over a four-year period (or such earlier vesting schedule as determined by the Committee). All stock plan awards will be subject to the terms and conditions of the specific stock plan award agreements, including certain restrictive covenants, and the UnitedHealth Group Incorporated 2020 Stock Incentive Plan. In accordance with UnitedHealth Group's governance policy, which stipulates that its Compensation and Human Resources Committee can only grant stock plan awards at regularly scheduled quarterly committee meetings, Executive's recommended grant will be reviewed by the Committee at its next regularly scheduled quarterly meeting following the Effective Date. The number of shares comprising the recommended grant will be calculated the day of the Committee meeting using the closing price of UnitedHealth Group stock on the day the calculation is made.

E.

Employee Benefits

. Executive will be eligible to participate in UnitedHealth Group's employee welfare, retirement, and stock incentive plans on the same basis as other similarly situated executives, in accordance with the terms of the plans. Executive will be eligible for Paid Time Off in accordance with UnitedHealth Group's policies. UnitedHealth Group reserves the right to amend or discontinue any plan or policy at any time in its sole discretion. In addition to the Company's generally available benefits, UnitedHealth Group shall provide Executive, at UnitedHealth Group's expense during the term of Executive's employment, a $2 million face value term life insurance policy, and a long-term disability policy which covers 60% of base salary in the event of a qualifying long-term disability, subject to the policy terms.

Termination of Employment

By Mutual Agreement

. The parties may terminate Executive's employment at any time by mutual agreement.

B.

By UnitedHealth Group without Cause

. UnitedHealth Group may terminate Executive's employment without Cause upon 90 days' prior written notice.

2

C.

By UnitedHealth Group with Cause

. UnitedHealth Group may terminate Executive's employment at any time for Cause. "Cause" means Executive's (a) material failure to follow UnitedHealth Group's reasonable direction or to perform any duties reasonably required on material matters, (b) material violation of, or failure to act upon or report known or suspected violations of, UnitedHealth Group's Code of Conduct, as amended from time to time, (c) conviction of any felony, (d) commission of any criminal, fraudulent, or dishonest act in connection with Executive's employment, (e) material breach of this Agreement, or (f) conduct that is materially detrimental to UnitedHealth Group's interests. UnitedHealth Group will, within 120 days of discovery of the conduct, give Executive written notice specifying the conduct constituting Cause in reasonable detail and Executive will have 60 days to remedy such conduct, if such conduct is reasonably capable of being remedied. In any instance where the Company may have grounds for Cause, failure by the Company to provide written notice of the grounds for Cause within 120 days of discovery shall be a waiver of its right to assert the subject conduct as a basis for termination for Cause.

D.

By Executive without Good Reason

. Executive may terminate Executive's employment at any time for any reason, including due to Executive's retirement.

By Executive for Good Reason

. Executive may terminate Executive's employment for Good Reason, as defined below. Executive must give UnitedHealth Group written notice specifying in reasonable detail the circumstances constituting Good Reason, within 120 days of becoming aware of such circumstances, or such circumstances will not constitute Good Reason. If the circumstances constituting Good Reason are reasonably capable of being remedied, UnitedHealth Group will have 60 days to remedy such circumstances. "Good Reason" will exist if UnitedHealth Group takes any of the following actions, without Executive's consent: (a) reduces Executive's base salary or target bonus percentage other than in connection with a general reduction affecting a group of employees; (b) moves Executive's primary work location more than 50 miles; or (c) makes changes that substantially diminish Executive's duties or responsibilities.

F.

Due to Executive's Death or Disability

. Executive's employment will terminate automatically if Executive dies, effective as of the date of Executive's death. UnitedHealth Group may terminate Executive's employment due to Executive's disability that renders Executive incapable of performing the essential functions of Executive's job, with or without reasonable accommodation. Executive will not be entitled to Severance Benefits under Section 4 in the event of termination due to Executive's death or disability.

Severance Benefits

A.

Circumstances under Which Severance Benefits Payable

. Executive will be entitled to Severance Benefits only if Executive's employment is terminated by UnitedHealth Group without Cause or if Executive terminates employment for Good Reason. Whether Executive has had a termination of employment will be determined in a manner consistent with the definition of "Separation from Service" under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986

and its accompanying regulations

("Section 409A")

and will be referred to herein as a "Termination." For purposes of this Agreement, Executive will be considered to have experienced a Termination as of the date that the facts and circumstances indicate that it is reasonably anticipated that Executive will provide no further services after such date or that the level of bona fide services that Executive is expected to perform permanently decreases to no more than 20% of the average level of bona fide services that Executive performed over the immediately preceding 36-month period. In consideration of the Severance Benefits in this Agreement, Executive waives any payments or benefits to which Executive otherwise might be or become entitled under any UnitedHealth Group severance plan or program.

B.

Severance Benefits

. Subject to Section 4.C, Executive shall be entitled to the following Severance Benefits if Executive experiences a Termination under the circumstances described in Section 4.A above:

i.

Two times Executive's annualized base salary as of Executive's Termination.

ii.

Any bonus or incentive compensation paid or payable to Executive for the two most recent calendar years (excluding equity-related awards, payments under any long-term or similar benefit plan, or any other special or one-time bonus or incentive compensation payments); provided, however, that if termination occurs within two years following the Effective Date, the amount payable under this paragraph will be Executive’s target incentive.

iii.

$12,000 lump sum payment, minus applicable deductions, to offset costs of COBRA, which amount will be paid within 60 days following Termination.

iv.

Outplacement services consistent with those provided to similarly situated executives provided by an outplacement firm selected by UnitedHealth Group.

The Severance Benefits in Sections 4.B.i.-ii. will be paid out, minus applicable deductions, including deductions for tax withholding, in equal bi-weekly payments on the regular payroll cycle over the 12-month period following Executive’s Termination. Commencement of payments shall begin on the first payroll date that is at least 60 days after the date of Executive’s Termination (the “Starting Date”), provided that Executive has satisfied the requirement in Section 4.C.

The first

payment on the Starting Date shall include those payments that would have been previously paid if the payments of the severance compensation had begun on the first payroll date following the date of Executive’s Termination. Executive’s entitlement to the payments of the severance compensation described in Sections 4.B.i.-ii. shall be treated as the entitlement to a series of separate payments for purposes of Section 409A.

If Executive is a “Specified Employee” (within the meaning of Section 409A and determined pursuant to procedures adopted by UnitedHealth Group) at the time of Executive’s Termination and any amount that would be paid to Executive during the six-month period following Termination constitutes “Deferred Compensation” (within the meaning of Section 409A), such amount shall not be paid to Executive until the later of (i) six months after the date of Executive’s Termination, and (ii) the payment date or commencement date specified in this Agreement for such payment(s). On the first regular payroll date following the expiration of such six-month period (or if Executive dies during the six-month period, the first payroll date following the death), all payments that were delayed pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be paid to Executive in a single lump sum and thereafter all payments shall be made as if there had been no such delay. All Severance Benefits described in Section 4.B.i-ii shall be paid by, and no further severance compensation shall be paid or payable after, December 31 of the second calendar year following the year in which Executive’s Termination occurs.

C.

Separation Agreement and Release Required

. In order to receive any Severance Benefits under this Agreement, Executive must timely sign a separation agreement and release of claims in a form determined by UnitedHealth Group in its discretion. UnitedHealth Group shall provide to Executive a form of separation agreement and release of claims no later than three (3) days following Executive’s date of Termination. If Executive does not timely execute and deliver to UnitedHealth Group such separation agreement and release, or if Executive does so, but then revokes it if permitted by and within the time required by applicable law, UnitedHealth Group will have no obligation to pay severance compensation to Executive.

. Executive agrees to the restrictive covenants in this Section in consideration of Executive's employment and UnitedHealth Group's promises in this Agreement, including providing

Executive access to Confidential Information. The restrictive covenants in this Section apply during Executive's employment and for 24 months following termination of employment for any reason. Executive agrees that he/she will not, without UnitedHealth Group's prior written consent, directly or indirectly, for Executive or for any other person or entity, as agent, employee, officer, director, consultant, owner, principal, partner or shareholder, or in any other individual or representative capacity, engage in any of the following activities;

Executive agrees that the provisions of this Section 5 are reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate interests of UnitedHealth Group.

F.

Waivers's; Other Rights

No party's failure to exercise, or delay in exercising, any right or remedy under this Agreement will be a waiver of such right or remedy, nor will any single or partial exercise of any right or remedy preclude any other or further exercise of such right or remedy. Nothing in this Agreement prohibits Executive from making disclosures that are protected under law or reporting violations of state or federal law or regulation to governmental agencies or entities.

F.

Narrowed Enforcement and Severability

. If a court or arbitrator decides that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or overbroad, the parties agree that the court or arbitrator should narrow such provision so that it is enforceable or, if narrowing

Except for injunctive relief under Section 5.G, any dispute between the parties relating to this Agreement or to Executive's employment will be resolved by binding arbitration under UnitedHealth Group's Employment Arbitration Policy, as it may be amended from time to time.
